In Focus This Month - Estate Planning

Consider an Estate Plan and the five key elements for an effective plan.

It is recommended that everyone, no matter the size of your estate, needs a plan which consists of five key elements:

- (1) financial power of attorney,
- (2) will,
- (3) beneficiary designations,
- (4) charitable beneficiary designations and
- (5) health care documents, such as a living will and a health care power of attorney.

It is important to consult an attorney and financial advisor when creating your estate plan. For more information about naming St. Theresa Parish or School as a charitable beneficiary, please contact Tom Galvan at 847.358.7760 ext. 102 or tomg@sttheresachurch.org.

To request the free guide, "Tips for Creating an Effective Estate Plan," please contact, Deacon Greg Vogt, Philanthropy Officer, Archdiocese of Chicago at 312.995.0686 or gvogt@archchicago.org.

Stewardship means recognizing God as the source of all things, caring for His gifts responsibly, and returning them with increase.

HOSPITALITY AT HEART

St. Vincent DePaul provides temporary emergency financial assistance to our neighbors in need.

We are called to love our neighbors. When you give to the Society of St. Vincent DePaul, you are supporting Palatine area neighbors in need with material aid like food and clothing, housing, rent, and utility assistance, and more.

If you are interested in donating to St. Vincent DePaul, donations can be made through the poor box at the back of the church, by scanning the QR code, below, or by sending checks payable to

The Society of St. Vincent DePaul to:

Society of St. Vincent DePaul, St. Theresa Conference,
455 N. Benton St. Palatine, IL 60067

Thank you and God Bless from all of us at the St. Theresa Chapter of St. Vincent DePaul for your generosity to our mission to help the poor.

Pray to End Abortion

On Saturday, August 8, all parishioners are invited to join members of the St. Theresa Parish Respect Life Committee when we pray the Rosary outside an abortion mill in Des Plaines. We will meet about 8:35 am in the Gathering area of St Theresa Church or when the 8:00 am Mass ends, and return by 10:15 am. Transportation will be available for those who are able to join us. Please make an effort to join us in this important cause.

Thank You!

Marian Rosary Devotion August 2026

June 25, 2026....Our Lady's monthly message to Marija

"Dear children Rejoice with me because the Most High permits me to be with you, to lead you to Him Who is the Way, the Truth and the Life. Rejoice, little children, and be joyful also in difficulties and you will have the strength, because you will be aware that you are transient and you will know to offer everything to God. That is why, do not forget: I am your Mother and I love you. Thank you for having responded to my call."

In response to our Blessed Mother's invitation in Medjugorje, the "Queen of Peace" Rosary Devotion is held on the first Monday of the month at 6:30 pm at St. Theresa Catholic Church.

Monday, August 3, 2026

Is our house built on rock or sand?

BELLARMINE
Jesuit Retreat House

September 11-13, 2026

*Ignatian, Silent
Weekend Retreat for Men*

This men's retreat will focus on the foundation of our life. Is our house built on Rock or Sand? Our world situation is often filled with chaos right now, and we need solid anchors to navigate these rough waters. This retreat will give some quiet space to reflect on what is most important for you and for our world.

Retreat Leader: Fr. Paul Macke, SJ

Jesuit Mission Coordinator at the Jesuit Spiritual Center in Milford, OH; works in conference and privately directed retreats; coordinates the Spiritual Direction Internship.

Writing Retreat: Epiphanies of Beauty

BELLARMINE
Jesuit Retreat House

October 1-4, 2026

*Ignatian, Semi-Silent
Extended Weekend Retreat for Adults*

As writers, artists, or thoughtful people who feel called to the crafting of language, how can we best receive God's world, in all of its grit and glory, and offer it back as gift through our works? Poets, novelists, saints, and other writers have grappled with this question over the years; we will explore some of their reflections, while also taking intentional time for prayer, worship, meditation, and personal writing.

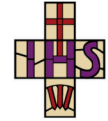

Retreat Leader: Carla Galdo

Poet, writer and editor; published in Well-Read Mom, Columbia Magazine, and Front Porch Republic; teacher of various classes in literature, theology, and book reviewing; leads a Catholic Literary Arts poetry workshop class for adult writers.

Riches Hidden in Secret Places Virtual Book Study

BELLARMINE
Jesuit Retreat House

September 2-December 2 2026

7:30 pm - 8:45 pm CT

Let's sit together with the Blind Beggar, Bartimaeus at the crossroads to engage the Jesus of Mark's gospel through the text. The Twelve are there. And other disciples. The scribes and Pharisees are there. Our interaction with all of them through the text will open surprising connections between us. We may discover our own inner blindness, our own fear, anger and shame, our own need for healing, that we become willing to look up and call to Jesus. This prayerful and hopeful book invites us to see that the parts of ourselves we most want to hide from are the very things that open to us the Path to Life, to joyous life in Christ.

Fr Roc O'Connor, SJ will facilitate the book study of his book, I Want to See: What the Story of Blind Bartimaeus Teaches Us about Fear, Surrender and Walking the Path to Joy.

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

Thus says the LORD: All you who are thirsty, come to the water!
(Is 55:1)

Psalm:

The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.
(Ps 145)

Second Reading:

For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.
(Rom 8:38-39)

Gospel:

Taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, who in turn gave them to the crowds.
(Mt 14:19)

Sharing the Gospel

Imagine being one of Jesus' disciples. One moment you see more than 5,000 hungry people. You don't know what to do. The next moment you see Jesus turn a small lunch into a huge feast. Jesus gives you the food, and he asks you to share it with the hungry people. Jesus asks the same thing today. Share what he gives you with others, too.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

August 2, 2026

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 14:13-21

We all know that moment when the mood changes, when life turns from lighthearted to deadly serious. That happens in today's Gospel. Jesus has just heard that John the Baptist, his cousin, forerunner, and friend, has been murdered. As Matthew tells us, "When Jesus heard of it, he withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself." Until now, he had been teaching in parables and healing quietly. But John's death signals a new phase. The shadow of the Cross begins to fall. Evil shows its teeth.

And how does Jesus respond? Not with rage or despair. He goes to a lonely place to go into deep communion with his Father. From that silence comes action. He feeds the multitude. Out of grief comes generosity. Out of sorrow, life.

This is the rhythm of every disciple's life. When tragedy or violence breaks our hearts, we face a choice. We can react, or we can retreat into prayer — like and with Christ. This is the hidden place where pain becomes compassion and compassion becomes self-gift.

Lord Jesus, when life intensifies, draw me into Your quiet strength. In that hidden place with You and the Father, turn my heartbreak into the bread of love for the world. Amen.

— Father John Muir
